Montalcino is a charming medieval village, almost fairy-tale, and thanks to its hilly location you can admire beautiful landscapes.

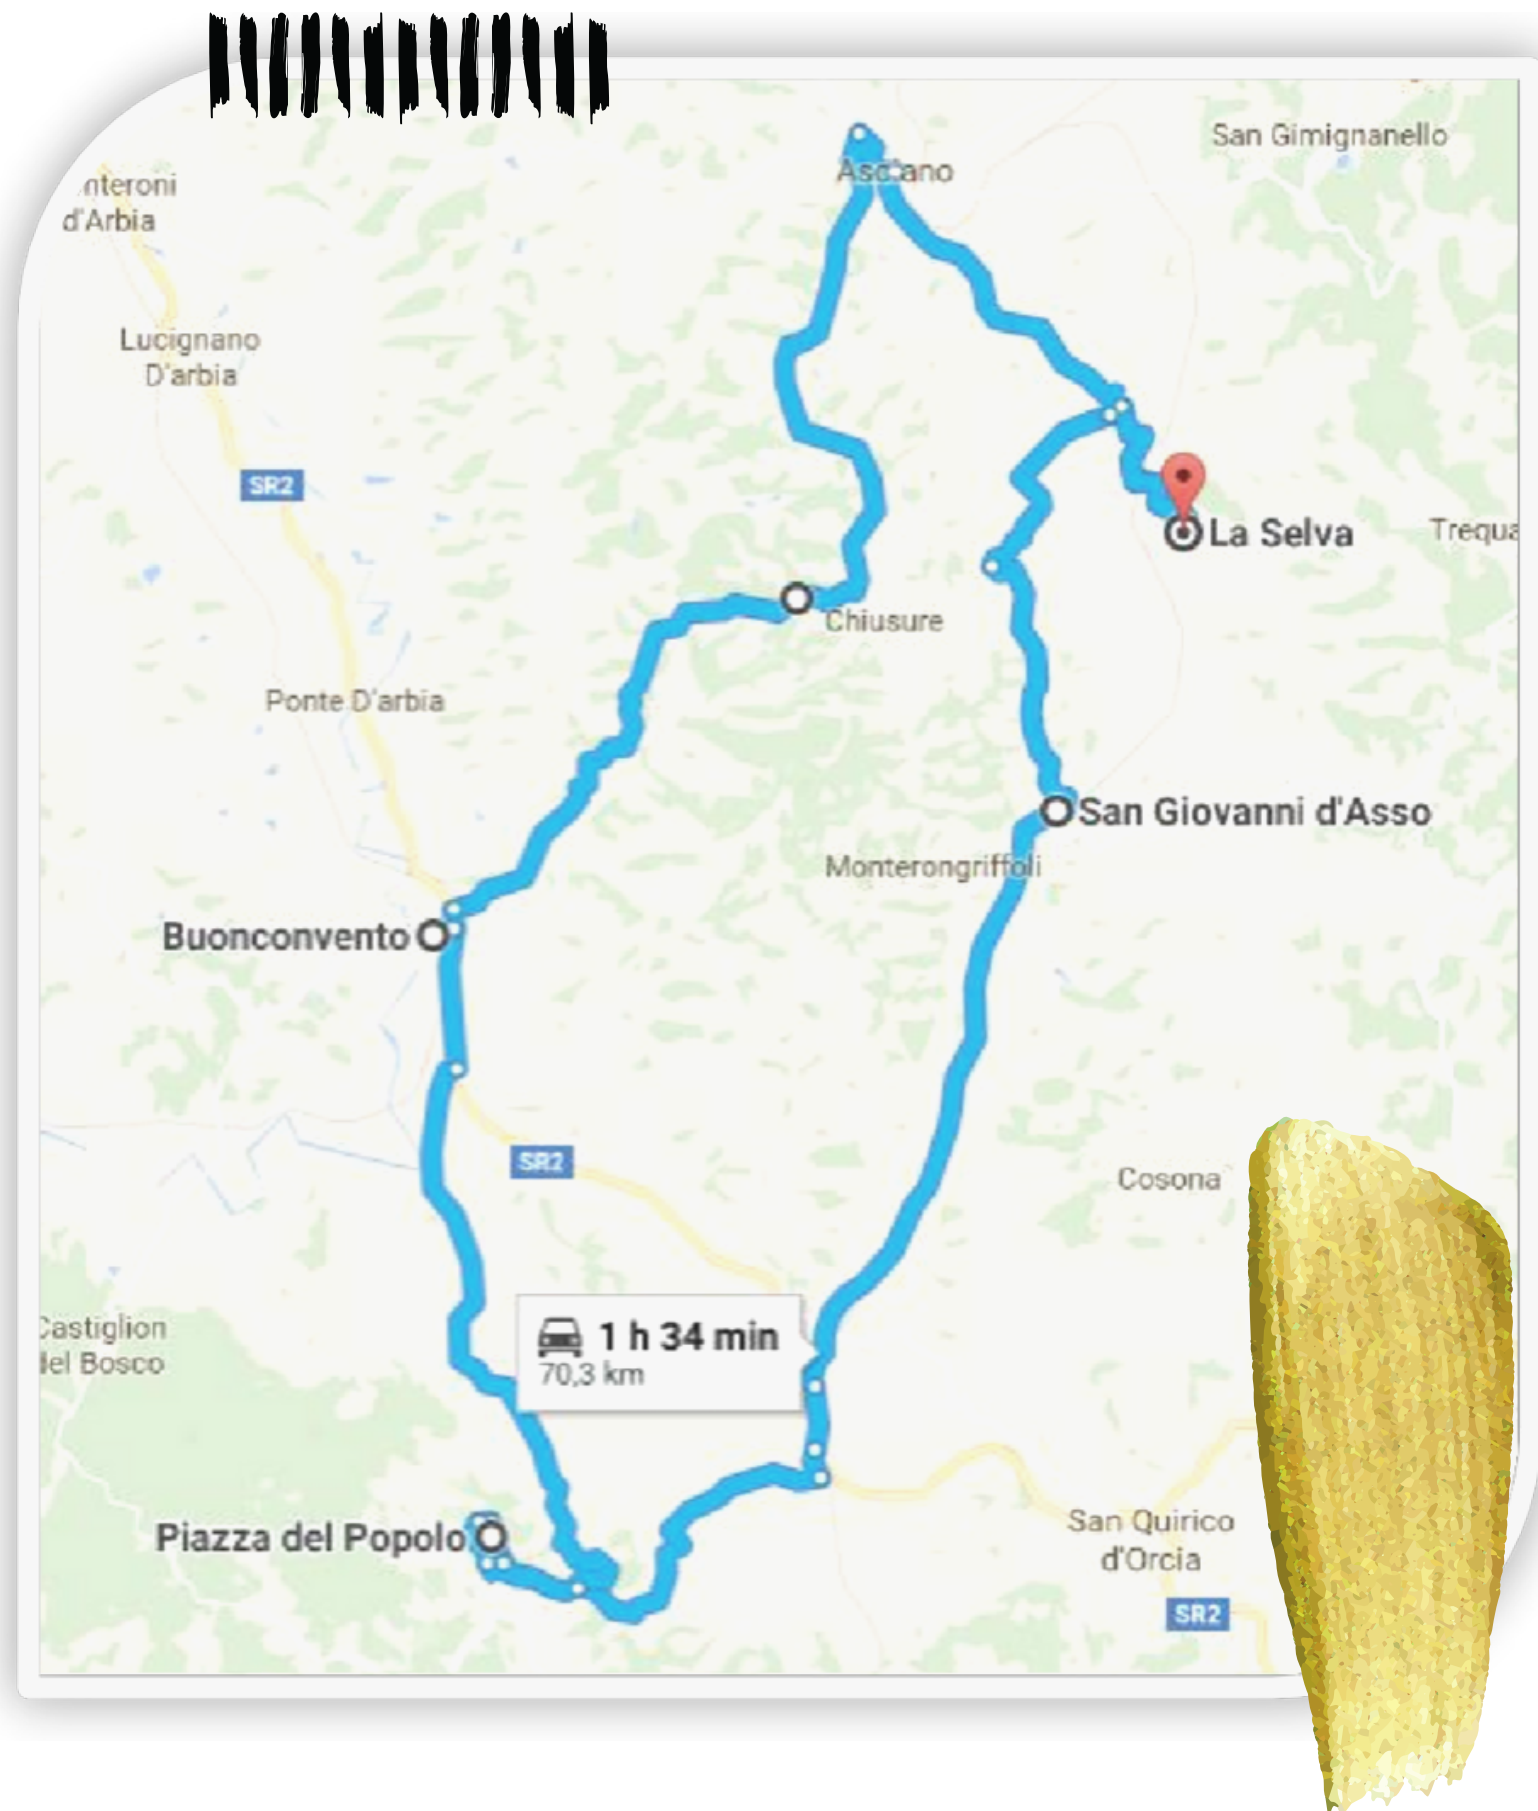

The city is known thanks to Brunello, one of the best Italian wines.

The old town is dominated by Castello di Montalcino, a mighty fortress built in 1361.

The panorama of the fortress of the Rocca is spectacular: stretches from Mount Amiata, crosses the Crete and culminates in Siena.

YOUR ROUTE FOR THE DAY

Meeting with the Tour Director: an expert Ferrari driver, will introduce you to the world of Ferrari; clarify the finer details of the controls, explain the differences between the various models and the engines and most importantly, give guidance on how to handle the F1 paddle-gear shifting behind the steering wheel.

We will pass through the wonderful landscape of “Crete Senesi”, full of vineyards, breathtaking and unforgettable views.
